

About guido schilling ag

Over the course of the last 25 years, guido schilling ag has become one of the leading executive search companies in Switzerland. It specialises in the nomination for selective top management positions at a supervisory board and company management level.

Guido Schilling contributes his many years of experience as an entrepreneur and supervisory board member of different service organisations to this mission. Therefore, he knows the requirements of his clients from personal practical experience.

guido schilling ag is an independent and stand-alone member of the global executive search network IMD International Search Group, which is one of the renowned networks in the industry.

Guido Schilling

Managing Partner

T direct +41 44 366 63 81

guido.schilling@guidoschilling.ch

Guido Schilling

He joined as partner in 1987 in the executive search company founded in 1980, which is called guido schilling ag today. Thanks to his thirty years of working in the area of executive search, he does not only have comprehensive search experience, but has also decisively shaped this industry in Switzerland. As a managing partner he uses his profound know-how to fill vacancies at the highest management level and in supervisory board management. Guido Schilling makes a valuable contribution to more transparency of top management with the schilling-report, in which he has been surveying the 100 largest Swiss companies regarding the composition of their executive boards, supervisory boards and various aspects of executive and supervisory board members since 2006.

Guido Schilling has a superb knowledge of very different industries, and for many years he has maintained a large network with decision makers in the business world. Before starting with executive search, Guido Schilling held several executive positions in international corporations.

Guido Schilling is an entrepreneur in the truest sense of the word. He is the founder, director and a member of many organisations and associations. He initiated and was the founding president of the Rotary Club in Zurich Turicum.

For many years, he was the president of the jury that every year awards the prestigious marketing trophy in Switzerland. As a teacher and examination expert for marketing, he has also contributed his comprehensive and professional experience to training and further education for 10 years.

Guido Schilling has a degree in business economics and still takes management courses in Switzerland and abroad to further his education and knowledge.

His mother tongue is German, but Guido Schilling also speaks English fluently.

Guido Schilling is married. He spends his leisure time in the arts field as supervisory board president of MAAG Music & Arts AG in Zurich. Under his aegis successful Swiss musicals such as "Ewigi Liebi", "Mein Name ist Eugen", "Deep" and "Space Dream" were developed. The latter has the largest Swiss cultural production to date, which has attracted more than half million visitors. Furthermore, he has been a board member of a social institution striving for the professional integration of disabled people for years.